

A. Syllabus of Research Methodology (RM) for PhD (Human Rights) Entrance Examination

Meaning of Research, Objectives in Social Science Research, Motivations in Research, types of Research, Research Approaches, Methods of Research: Deductive and Inductive research, Theoretical-empirical, qualitative-quantitative, Mixed methods of research, Research Design, Review of literature, Hypothesis, Sample Design, Methods of Data Collection, Observation Method, Interview method, Questionnaire and Schedules, Plagiarism, Research Ethics, format and style of referencing, acknowledgement and citation.

B. Syllabus of Subject Awareness for PhD (Human Rights) Entrance Examination (50 Marks)

1. Theory of State, Democracy, Rights, Liberty, Equality and Justice.
2. Approaches to the Study of Politics
3. Debates and Issue around Human Rights
4. Indian Constitution
5. Indian Political System- Structure, Institution and Process
6. Issue of Governance and governability
7. Liberalisation, privatization and Globalisation and its impact on society, economy and polity
8. Political Economy and India's Economic Reform - its process and impact
9. Social history of India and Welfare state
10. Public policy in India
11. Disabilities Human Rights Law and Public Policy
12. Development and Issues of Human Rights
13. Human Rights, Law and Vulnerable social group in India
14. State and Social Justice in India.